NEW DELHI CAPITAL REGION
GURUGRAM

Gurugram, the second largest city in the state of Haryana is a reflection of an ideal modern city and futuristic goals. Officially known as Gurugram, this city has grown from a sleepy town to a fast paced urban centre in a very short span. Witnessing rapid urbanisation, Gurugram has become a leading financial and industrial hub with the third-highest per capita income in India. The city's rise to economic stronghold began with the establishment of Maruti Suzuki India Limited and today it harbours hundreds of Fortune 500 companies.

The city was named after revered teacher Dronacharya of epic Mahabharata. It is believed that Dronacharya was gifted this ancestral village by his disciples, the Pandavas and Kauravas. He gave spiritual instructions to them at this place.

Today the same place is marked with development, modern facilities and a planned infrastructure. The public-private sector partnership model in real estate development has been the major force behind Gurugram's emergence as the corporate capital. Its close proximity to the National Capital

Region has also resulted in Gurugram becoming a corporate hub of BPO companies, IT companies, etc. in an uptrend in the hospitality industry here, with MICE tourism being the major driving force.

Gurugram with its location on NH-8, closer to international airport, offers world-class commercial development, entertainment centres and shopping complexes.

Apart from being a city with throbbing commercial activities, Gurugram is also blessed with quite a few tourist destinations that are worth exploring. These are listed below:

1. DLF CYBER HUB:

8. SAI KA ANGAN TEMPLE-

By the grace of Shri Shirdi Sai Baba, it was decided by the Trust to build a temple, which would be different from the conventional temples. The temple was visualized as 'Sai Ka Angan', where the devotees of Sai Baba would find peace and solace and would be seen as the 'Shirdi of North India'. The Temple is located at Gurgaon (near Delhi). On 7th October, 2001, Dr. Satpathyji declared that the temple will be modelled after Shirdi's Dwarka Mai, the abode of Shri Sai Nath till He took his Samadhi, for the numerous Sai devotees who have not got a chance to visit Shirdi. The Dwarka Mai temple replica was constructed, with a life size idol of Sai Baba in a sitting posture in front of the Dhuni. Spread over an area of 4000 square yards, there was ample space within the complex, to build more structures connected with Shri Sai Baba's stay at Shirdi.
