EVENING RITUAL BY THE GHATS OF YAMUNA

Each evening as the sun's last rays reflect off the boundless waters of the river Ganga, the aarti ritual is performed at the three holy cities of Haridwar, Rishikesh and Varanasi in India. This ceremony is filled with song, prayer, ritual and a palpable sense of the peace and tranquillity.

At ITC Grand Bharat, we pay tribute to this ritual as we perform the aarti by the Ghats of Yamuna. The essence of the aarti ceremony is that all day long – the light of the sun, the light of life, keeps us going. The evening aarti is a time when we say 'thank you'. It is a time during which we break free from the normal stresses and strains of everyday life and gather together in joy, reverence and peace.

As the bright yellow sun dips into the water creating a mesmerising golden hue all around, it leaves us filled with a deep sense of bliss, reverence and spiritual connection.

GAZEBO DINING

Share a romantic candlelit dinner by the Ghats of Yamuna in your very own private gazebo. Celebrate memorable moments of togetherness with a four course

Table D'Hote menu. Experience unhurried luxury at its best as you watch the sun set over the horizon exclusively at ITC Grand Bharat.
